CAR CARE TIPS FOR SAFE HALLOWEEN DRIVING

With Halloween fast approaching, the Car Care Council reminds motorists to drive slowly, especially through neighborhoods, to be extra careful when entering or exiting driveways or alleyways, and to make sure their vehicle's brakes, lights & wipers are working properly.

"Motorists can help keep young pedestrians safe on Halloween by reminding children of basic safety rules, taking extra precautions when driving through neighborhoods, and inspecting vehicle safety items, like brakes," said Rich White, Executive Director, Car Care Council. "With daylight savings time on the horizon, October is also an ideal time to check vehicles lights & wipers to ensure maximum visibility."

A dirty windshield is a deterrent to safe driving, but especially during Halloween as many children are trying to cross the street. If the weather turns, cracked or torn wipers will also pose a problem to visibility. Check that all your lights are working for maximum performance & visibility on Halloween. This year the end of Daylight Saving Time is after Halloween & that means children will likely be trick-or-treating at dusk when the sky is still bright, yet objects on the road can merge with shadows & fade into darkness.

A vehicle's brake system is the most critical safety item on a vehicle, but brakes wear out & eventually need replacement. Several factors that affect brake wear include driving habits, operating conditions, vehicle type & the quality of the brake lining material. Never put off routine brake inspections or any needed repairs, such as letting the brakes get to the "metal-to-metal" point, which can be potentially dangerous & lead to more costly repairs.

"Parents should remind their little ghosts & goblins to get out of cars on the curb side, not the street side, to stop at all corners & to use crosswalks," continued White. "Children should look left, right & left again before crossing, stay on sidewalks, avoid crossing through yards, and wear bright, reflective & flame-retardant clothing."

The Car Care Council is the source of information for the "Be Car Care Aware" consumer education campaign promoting the benefits of regular vehicle care, maintenance & repair to consumers. For the latest car care news, visit the council's website at www.carcare.org.

OCT 5TH - WORLD TEACHER'S DAY

World Teachers' Day is celebrated annually on October 5th. This is a day to honor teachers & teacher organizations, as well as the vital contributions they make to the education & development of our future leaders.

More than 100 different countries observe this holiday. Thank a teacher today... use #WorldTeachersDay & recognize your favorite teacher on social media!

OCT 31 - HAPPY HALLOWEEN

Halloween is said to have its roots in an ancient Celtic celebration in Ireland & Scotland called Samhain, which marked the end of summer. People at the time were frightened of evil spirits. They would dress up in costumes & make noise in the streets to make the spirits go away. When the Catholic Church came to the Celtic land, it brought with it the celebration of All Saints Day on November 1st. This day was also called All Hallows Day & the night before was called All Hallows Eve. Many of the traditions from the two holidays became merged together. Over time, All Hollows Eve was shortened to Halloween & traditions like trick-or-treating & carving Jack-o-lanterns became part of the holiday.

Thanks for the Kind Words!

"My car broke down on the highway and my car was towed to my regular mechanic who we found out was on vacation. The tow driver recommended Yeck's so we took it there. My entire experience with them was 4star! Their service with and for veterans was outstanding. Even though my vehicle was found to be unrepairable, they reduced my bill for the items that were checked but not repaired even though they had spent time on the car. Totally impressed and thankful. I HIGHLY RECOMMEND THEM!!"

OCT 16TH - DICTIONARY DAY

This unofficial holiday celebrates the birth anniversary of American lexicographer, Noah Webster. Born on October 16, 1758, Webster is best known for publishing "An American Dictionary of the English Language", the precursor of the now famous & widely used Merriam-Webster Dictionary.

How to Celebrate? Pick up a dictionary & try to learn the meanings of at least 5 new words. Here's a few to help you get started...

Semasiological, of course! Dictionaries are semasiological. Semasiology is the branch of linguistics that deals with the definition of words & phrases in a language. This is different from onomasiology, which deals with what things & concepts are called. A thesaurus is an onomasiological reference book because it provides users the different terms that can be used to express a specific idea.

And, finally, did you know... that pneumonoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanoconiosis is the longest word in the Merriam-Webster dictionary? At 45 letters, the word refers to a lung disease.

SEAFOOD GUMBO

Ingredients
• 1 cup all-purpose flour	• 4 cups chicken broth	• 2 teaspoons oregano
• 1 cup canola oil	• 8 cups water	• 1 teaspoon ground black pepper
• 4 cups chopped onion	• 4 cups sliced okra	• 6 cups small shrimp, rinsed & drained, or seafood of your choice
• 2 cups chopped celery	• 2 tablespoons paprika	• 1 cup minced fresh parsley
• 2 cups chopped green pepper	• 2 tablespoons salt	• 2 tablespoons Cajun seasoning
• 1 cup sliced green onion & tops

Directions
• In a heavy Dutch oven, combine flour & oil until smooth. Cook over medium-high heat for 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Reduce heat to medium. Cook & stir about 10 minutes more, or until mixture is reddish brown.
• Add the onion, celery, green pepper & green onions; cook & stir for 5 minutes. Add the chicken broth, water, okra, paprika, salt, oregano & pepper. Bring to boil; reduce heat & simmer, covered, for 10 minutes.
• Add shrimp & parsley. Simmer, uncovered, about 5 minutes more or until seafood is done. Remove from heat; stir in Cajun seasoning.
